

Joe Sealy has enjoyed a highly successful career as a musician, composer, recording artist and radio broadcaster. His 1997 Juno Award winning Africville Suite inspired Ron Foley MacDonald of The Halifax Daily News to write; "This may be the most important jazz album released in Canada this year". Joe has presented "The Africville Suite" in concert venues and at music festivals across Canada as well as Denmark, Norway and the USA.

As a pianist, he has toured with "Blood Sweat and Tears" and performed with such artists as Joe Williams, Milt Jackson, Veronica Tennant, and Timothy Findlay. As well, Joe and his longtime music partner Paul Novotny have created a unique sounding jazz duo. Together they have released four CD's, achieved two Juno nominations and shared the concert stage in Montreal & Toronto jazz festivals with Michel Petruciani, Brad Mehldau / Charlie Haden, Red Mitchell / Herb Ellis and the Bobo Stenson Trio.

Besides being president of Triplet Records Inc., Joe has hosted his own weekly radio show "Joe Sealy's Duets" on Jazz FM 91 now in its' fifth season. Joe was also the music director of the acclaimed "Tonya Lee Williams Gospel Jubilee" television special and several CBC radio specials including "East Coasting" and "Viola Desmond". He has recently composed original film scores for two documentary films entitled, "The Little Black School House" and "Directors Speak". Most recently, Joe acted as producer, arranger and pianist on a CD entitled "Mostly About You" featuring vocalist Colin Hunter.
